

Derek Renshaw Trumpet/Cornet

Derek began his playing career at ten years old and has been in great demand ever since. A gifted musician who has played for many bands including Black Dyke Mills, Grimethorpe Colliery and Yorkshire Imperial Metals. Derek is now a successful and sought after Musical Director.

Scott Bennett Horn

Scot started playing with his local band, Barrow Colliery Junior, at the age of twelve. He has played with several top class brass bands including Williams Fairey Engineering, Black Dyke Mills, Brighthouse & Rastrick, Leyland and Grimethorpe Colliery. Scot has toured and competed around the UK.

guarantee your Concert is unique, make your Corporate Event truly bespoke, or ensure your Wedding becomes the Society Wedding of the Year!"

THE brass players

Martin Grimes Trumpet/Cornet

Martin started playing the cornet at the age of seven and joined his local brass band in Hoyland, Barnsley. Martin has played for many top class brass bands including Barrow Colliery, Rockingham Colliery, Chapeltown Silver, Hatfield, Stocksbridge and Grimethorpe Colliery.

David Moore Euphonium/Trombone

David was a founder of the "James Shepherd Versatile Brass" with whom he toured extensively around the world for ten years. David has played professionally with many bands and orchestras and has worked extensively on TV and radio. He has a huge catalogue of recordings to his credit.

Rob Fisher Trombone

Robert started his musical career in the mid-seventies playing trombone with Barnsley Metropolitan Band. Robert has been a member of Carlton Main Frickley Colliery Band, Hade Edge Band and played for the Johnny Mann Show Band. Robert is a current member of "Harlequin Brass".

Roy Bowater Tuba

Roy has over 25 years experience as a tuba player and has been a member of many top ranked bands including Yorkshire Imperial Metals, Black Dyke Mills, Yorkshire Building Society and Dodworth Colliery. Roy has toured and competed around Europe and Japan.

THE brass players

John Lee Flugel

John started his playing career at the age of eight, initially being taught by his father and then going on to study for the Royal London College of Music exams. John has worked with some of the countries top bands and has appeared in countless film TV and radio programmes.

Want to know more?... you can find full biogs on all the Brass Players at www.thebrassplayers.co.uk

To contact the brass players call:

Derek on 0114 285 4419
John on 0114 286 4421
Keith on 0114 286 2511

email: post@thebrassplayers.co.uk

www.thebrassplayers.co.uk

'The Brass Players' are highly skilled musicians with over 250 years playing experience between them (with not one admitting to being over 22!!).

They have performed for royalty, appeared on worldwide hit records, in award winning feature films and on virtually every popular UK television and radio station during the programmes and in the commercial breaks.

They have toured extensively on all five continents and have featured live as soloists at many of the worlds leading venues, The Royal Albert Hall, The Sydney Opera House; The Royal Concertgebouw, The Paris Opera House and Wembley Stadium, to name just a few.

Collectively, they are seven virtuoso musicians offering a thrilling musical experience that guarantees to leave audiences hungry for more! Versatility is the magical ingredient that makes this group ideal for your event, whether you require a stand alone concert, accompaniment for your choir, a popular music set around dinner, a Fanfare for the CEO and company's top performers, or classical music for your Church or Cathedral.

With a repertoire ranging from Classical to Pop, and Rock to Baroque, you can ensure a melodious, magical and memorable event by engaging 'The Brass Players'

“ Engage The Brass Players to guarantee your Concert is unique, make your Corporate Event truly bespoke, or ensure your Wedding becomes the Society Wedding of the Year! ”

Concerts

The members of 'The Brass Players' have a wealth of experience performing on the main platform at world-class venues across the globe. Their performances include a wide variety of music from Classical with the Barcelona Symphony Orchestra to Baroque with the Philip Jones Brass Ensemble and Popular Music with the Moody Blues.

Film & TV Recording

There is huge popularity in Brass music for television, film scores and studio recordings. In recent times, some of the most successful productions have relied either partly or entirely on the genre. The Brass Players have extensive experience in providing music in this area, and would be delighted to discuss how they might add value to your project.

Corporate Events

Differentiation of your corporate event is just a phone call away. Imagine the impact 'The Brass Players' can create by providing live fanfares for the Chairman. CEO or your organisations star performers and award winners! Whether you are planning a formal business conference, team building day or client seminar, you can be sure that 'The Brass Players' will add that extra touch of exclusivity to your day.

Weddings

For the most memorable day of your life, why not engage the unforgettable sounds of 'The Brass Players'? It's guaranteed to have your wedding celebrations on the lips of every guest for a very long time. Imagine the bride and groom walking down the aisle to the 'Wedding March', 'Trumpet Voluntary' or Trumpet Tune and Air' played on, you guessed it, a real live trumpet!

Festivals & Galas

Over the years music festivals and galas have remained very popular both outdoors in castles, stately homes and on the village green during the summer months together with many special occasions at other times of the year. At home with either Christmas carols or the patriotic sounds of 'Land of Hope and Glory', The Brass Players can provide the perfect backdrop to your musical entertainment.